

International Association
for
Christian Education

General Assembly 2017 and
Symposium
„ Commitment and Qualification – What teachers do we need at Christian Schools?“
on 1st/2nd November, 2017, in Dublin/Ireland

Schedule

Friday, 1st December, 2017

- 17.00 h Reception and welcoming by the President of IV and the Archbishop of Dublin, the Most Revd Dr. Michael Jackson (Chapter House of Christ Church Cathedral)
- 18.00 h Plenum
- Rev Professor Anne Lodge, Director of the Church of Ireland Centre in Dublin City University: Irish Teacher Education.
 - Mr Philip McKinley, Chaplain at Dublin City University: Chaplaincy at third level.
- 19.00 h Dinner and Irish Evening (with music)
- 21.00 h Closing and departure by bus (as far as needed)

Saturday, 2nd December, 2017

- 08.00 h Breakfast (Hotel / Theological Institute)
- 8.45 h Transfer from the City to the Theological Institute
- 9.30-11.00 h General Assembly according to the IV-articles (Theological Institute) - Please refer to separate agenda
- 11.00 h Coffee break
- 11.15-12.45 h Symposium:
- Prof. Dr. Manfred Pirner: „ Commitment and Qualification – What teachers do we need at Christian Schools?“
 - Contributions from other countries and discussion
- 13.00 h Visit of the High School
- 14.00 h Departure for Christ Church Cathedral and Lunch

15.30 h Guided Visit to Marsh's Library and St Patrick's Cathedral, Closing

Departure (if desired) - Free evening for those who stay

Sunday, 3rd December, 2017

Possibility to attend the service in St. Patrick's or Christ Church Cathedral